

Neurology Authorship, Non-financial, and Financial Disclosure Form

(To be completed by corresponding author only.)

This form is to be signed only by the corresponding author and submitted to the Neurology Editorial Office [fax (651) 332-8608]. The corresponding author is responsible for obtaining the standard Author Disclosure Form from all authors listed on the Title Page of the manuscript. These forms must be kept on file at the corresponding author's office and should not be submitted to Neurology unless requested. Corresponding authors are also responsible for disclosing any co-author(s) potential or real, financial or non-financial conflicts of interest in the manuscript in a "Disclosure" section on the title page of the submitted manuscript and in writing to the Editor-in-Chief of Neurology. If accepted, the corresponding author is responsible that any disclosure appears on the page proofs. The corresponding author must keep Author Disclosure Forms from all authors for five years from the date of the original submission of the manuscript.

Manuscript Title: _____ M/S # _____

Corresponding Author's Name _____ Co-authors' Names _____

Authorship Disclosure

1. As corresponding author of this manuscript, I understand this submitted manuscript and the essence of its content (including data, text, tables, figures): (a) has not been previously published (abstracts can be excluded); and (b) is not under simultaneous consideration by another journal. If there is any possibility of duplicate or redundant publication, a letter of explanation is enclosed with the original submission. As an author of this manuscript, I agree with (a) and (b) and sign on behalf of all authors:

Yes No (If no, explain on a separate page)

2. Each author should have participated sufficiently in the work to take responsibility for the content. Authorship credit should be based only on substantial contributions to (a) conception and design, or analysis and interpretation of data; and to (b) drafting the article or revising it critically for important intellectual content; and on (c) final approval of the version to be published. Conditions (a), (b), and (c) must all be met. *

As corresponding author of this manuscript, I agree that all authors have met conditions (a), (b), and (c):

Yes No (If no, explain on a separate page)

3. Are there persons not listed as authors who met criteria (#2. above) (a), (b), and/or (c) (e.g. paid or unpaid medical writers).

Yes (If yes, explain on a separate page) No

4. Non-financial disclosure [corresponding or principal investigator only]: I take full responsibility for the data, the analyses and interpretation, and the conduct of the research. I had full access to all of the data. I have the right to publish any and all data, separate and apart from the attitudes of the sponsor.

Yes No (If no, explain on a separate page)

If authorship is attributed to a Study Group and conditions (a,b,c) were not met by individuals in the study group, they and their roles should be specified in an Appendix. They should not appear in the byline.

Financial Disclosure

If any author(s) have financial disclosures (answers "yes" to any of the following questions) on this or co-author form, the corresponding author is responsible for providing a detailed explanation on the title page under the heading "Disclosure." Potential or real conflicts of interest for each author and each disclosure must be listed. Signed copies of the pertinent individual Author Disclosure Form(s) should be supplied to the Editor-in-Chief for review if requested.

1. The research/study named above was supported by a corporate sponsor:
