The Disclosure Agreement form will require information regarding your activity (either commercial or non-profit) and that of any immediate family members during the past two years or during the length of the study reported if it exceeded two years. Disclosures are required for any dollar amount, except for gifts values under $1000. Only the names of commercial and non-profit entities are required; dollar amounts, specific roles, and specific years are not.

Personal compensation
- Serving on a scientific advisory board
- Gifts worth more than $1000
- Funding for travel
- Serving as a journal editor, associate editor, or on an editorial advisory board
- Patents held or pending
- Royalties from publishing
- Honoraria
- Corporate appointments
- Speaker’s bureaus
- Clinical or imaging studies in your practice and % effort devoted

Research support
- Commercial research support
- Government research support (including grant numbers)
- Academic research support not attributed in the manuscript
- Support from a non-profit foundation or society
- Stock options for serving on a Board of Directors
- License fee payments
- Royalty payments from technology or inventions

Stocks, stock options, and royalties
- Stock options in a company in which you are (were) an investigator
- Stock options in medical industry

Legal proceedings
- Expert testimony for a legal proceeding
- Affidavit for a legal proceeding
- Witness or consultant for a legal proceeding

Optional non-financial
- Non-financial disclosures you wish to share